

THE UNIVERSITY OF THE THIRD AGE

U3A Baw Baw Inc.

Term 3, 2021 Courses

12 July 2021

U3A Baw Baw will be continuing its classes in Term three.

Classes will be managed under the appropriate Covid-19 Safety Plans that apply to our U3A and to any other venues we may use.

Because the Pandemic situation is constantly evolving, there could be changes in the way we will be presenting our Courses.

We will continue to offer our Courses through the Zoom medium and at alternative venues, as dictated by current Government Pandemic guidelines.

We ask that all our Course participants work closely with the Tutors and our Commit-tee through this transitional period.

The Courses will be open for enrolment on the U3A Baw Baw website from today. Enrolments in all courses need to be registered on the website.

For any assistance with Course enrolments on the website, please contact Steph Wellard (0419 509 607) or John Parker (0408 364 159).

For Queries re Courses, please contact the relevant Course Tutors.

Venue: Zoom Course

Type: Term Course

Frequency: , Tue 10:00am - 11:30am

Tutor: John McKinnon

This is an introductory stroll down the twisted path that is cryptic crossword solving - playing with words, thinking laterally, and relishing wit. We start with the basics and build step-by-step towards more advanced concepts. The aim is to demystify the dark arts of cruciverbalism but we will pause to savour some roses along the way.

The instructional part of the course consists of 7 modules:

1. Cryptic History, Cryptic Thinking and Double-Definition Clues
2. Anagram Clues, Signposts, Solving Strategies and Resources
3. Charade Clues with Symbols, Abbreviations, Shorthands and Exotics
4. Homophone Clues and Hiddens
5. Reversals, Hybrids and Spoonerisms
6. Word Surgery – Container Clues, Codes and Manipulations
7. Single-Part Clues (Puns and Rebuses) and Punctuation

When these are completed, we will move to a more interactive format with a view to establishing an ongoing "Cryptic Club".

All sessions have practice exercises and graded puzzles to be completed offline. Assistance, if required, will be available via email exchanges with the tutor.

Enrolment for this Course needs to be registered via the website, or contact Steph Wellard 0419 509 607 if you would like assistance.

The course involves weekly Zoom sessions each lasting around 1 hour. If anyone is unsure about accessing Zoom please contact John Parker on 0408 364 159.

Access to a Computer, laptop, tablet or smartphone is required. .

John McKinnon is a retired computer programmer and teacher of English Literature.

21HISTZ3: Remembering Melbourne Beyond the Golden Mile

Type: Term Course

Dates: 15/07/2021 - 10/09/2021

Frequency: , Thu 10:00am - 11:30am

Venue: Zoom Course

Tutor: Mary Howlett

This continuation from the Remembering Melbourne Course will explore the traditional ownership, the topography and the history of colonial settlement from the 1840s of the inner suburbs. This course will also present stories of colourful residents and significant buildings as we follow the expansion of train lines and tram lines out of the centre of the city.

15 July Tutor: Mary

The Cemeteries - Melbourne General, Booroondara, StKilda, Brighton

Famous graves

These early cemeteries hold the stories of judges, politicians, newspaper editors, poets and artists. Walter Lindrum's gravestone is a Billiard table!!

22 July 1840/1841 Tutor: Mary

Brighton was planned as a completely new town and was settled by Henry Dendy in 1840. Settled to replicate their estates in the UK. Political influence by land developer Tommy Bent was a notorious scandal
St Kilda, the playground of Melbourne was an exclusive suburban retreat virtually from the time of European settlement.

29 July 1842 Tutor: Donna

Richmond -home to Melba's family, a racecourse, intense manufacturing and Richmond Hill where the gentry resided

North Melbourne where the Benevolent Asylum was located and the Locomotive Depot housed turntables and six track entrances

5 August 1849/1855 Tutor: Rod

Port Melbourne or Sandridge was the gateway to Melbourne. Known for Station Pier it boasted the first railway line in Australia as well as the Air Booking service, Swallow and Ariel, Kitchen Soap and Candles and a distillery.

South Melbourne/Emerald Hill

The area was first settled by Europeans in the 1840s and became known as Emerald Hill. During the Victorian Gold Rush of 1851 a tent city, known as Canvas Town was established. The area soon became a massive slum, home to tens of thousands of fortune seekers from around the world.

12 August 1854 Tutor: Mary

East Melbourne. A barracks house was built for the first government official, Lonsdale, before Governor LaTrobe arrived with his own pre fabricated house and erected it. Important buildings, the Fire Station, St Vincent's Hospital, the MCG, as well as the home of the Anglican Archbishop (Bishopcourt) and the home of Von Guerard are among many grand buildings

19 August 1851 Tutor: Russell

West Side Story

This area was surveyed along the chain of ponds and the Maribyrnong River very early in Victoria's settlement but came into prominence when it became a stop over on the way to the goldfields

Home to racecourses and an aerodrome

26 August 1873 Tutor: Mary

Collingwood/Carringbush Most development took place on the banks of the Yarra where early settlers built mansions and the Dight brothers established a flour mill at the falls. Home to bootmakers, bootleggers and book makers, this suburb housed John Wren.

2 September Tutor: Steph

Stately Homes-Como, Ripponlea, Stonnington, Labassa, Iron houses in South Melbourne

The Gold Bonanza meant the Melbourne was awash with riches and the National Trust Houses still standing tell stories of the wealthy merchants and speculators who inhabited them

9 September Tutor: Vera
