

THE UNIVERSITY OF THE THIRD AGE

U3A Baw Baw Inc.

Term 4 2022 Courses

October 2022

U3A Baw Baw will be holding courses in the Drouin RSL meeting room, at various venues in Warragul and Drouin, and by zoom in term 4 this year. All subject to prevailing COVID restrictions.

The September Committee meeting will be reviewing our current COVID restrictions, considering recent changes announced by the Victorian Government, and will advise all members of any changes. At the time of preparing this booklet face to face classes are available only to those who are fully vaccinated, and we are encouraged to wear masks at these classes.

Courses are now open for enrolment through the U3A website at u3abawbaw.org.au choose "Courses" from the menu and register for each course in which you are interested.

Instructions for How to Enrol online have been prepared. These will be sent to all members and will be available in the meeting room.

For queries about any Course please contact the relevant Course Tutor.

If you are having trouble enrolling in a Course, please contact Steph Wellard by telephone on 0419 509 607 or email courses@u3abawbaw.org.au

Proposal for a U3A Baw Baw Course

Members are invited to send ideas for future Courses for consideration. Adoption of any suggestion will depend on availability of a presenter and compatibility with the criteria below. We also welcome proposals by members to present a course. If appropriate, support will be given to enable such a course to proceed.

U3A philosophies and learning principles emphasis the value of life-long learning, self-help and shared learning, and co-operation and collaboration in learning and teaching. In the U3A environment no distinction is drawn between learners and teachers. All of us have unique knowledge and experience that can be shared with others through U3A courses and activities.

Courses offered at U3A Baw Baw must not promote political or religious beliefs or expound controversial theories. A balanced objective history of such beliefs or theories can be presented subject to the scrutiny by the course committee.

Here's a guide to assist members who wish to propose a course or activity for the U3A Baw Baw courses program.

PROCEDURE:

1. Discuss your initial ideas other U3A members
2. Contact the Courses Coordinator when you have developed your ideas
3. Complete the details on the Course Proposal Form
4. Submit the Form to the Courses Coordinator for consideration by the Courses Committee
5. The Courses Committee may seek more information, approve it in principle, or approve it for inclusion in the program

NEED HELP:

The Course Proposal Form is designed to help you think about what needs to be considered in running a course. If you are willing to offer to run a course, no matter whether you are thinking about a short course of a week or two or something a bit more ambitious, please feel free to talk with the Courses Coordinator or a member of the Courses Committee. They would be more than happy to give assistance.
