

BROADWAY MUSICALS

The course is about the enjoyment and appreciation of musical theatre particularly through the shows of Broadway. It excludes the film industry and focuses mostly on the works for stage.

Anyone who loves musicals as entertainment, particularly songs, music and dance, but also the theatre and drama will benefit from this course.

The program consists of presentations of a wide variety of shows, together with background information while mainly listening to songs and watching audiovisual content to see choreography, follow the stories they often contain, dramas, as well as those surrounding them.