

BROADWAY MUSICALS 2025

Continuing Broadway Musicals 2025, we will harvest the inexhaustible riches of the lyric stage, principally focused on the Broadway stage, without excluding others that altogether make up the wonderful world of song and dance. At any one time, we are only aware of the tip of the iceberg. Therefore it is necessary for the extra effort in ploughing the vastness submerged, hearing about songwriters and music, and life-stories behind them, but also getting to know the stars interpreting them then and now; yes, Broadway stays vibrant not only in new musicals but also in lovingly revisiting "forgotten shows" - literally 1000s - and it takes special effort to go further than media can manage to inform us. Here's your place to engage interactively and informatively, Monday mornings, fortnightly, 10am to 12pm.
